Re: Outstanding Invoice(s) for Legal Services

Dear Deborah Wessells,

I hope this letter finds you well. We trust that our services proved beneficial to you in your matter with PJI Law (the "Firm"). However, we regret to inform you that your account with the Firm currently carries an outstanding balance. Despite our previous communications and attempts to resolve this matter amicably, the invoice(s) remains unpaid.

We understand that circumstances can sometimes lead to delays in settling financial obligations, and we want to give you an opportunity to address this matter before further actions are taken. Our intention is to resolve this matter without resorting to legal proceedings. We highly value the relationships we build with our clients and believe in finding reasonable solutions.

As of the date of this letter, your current outstanding balance inclusive of interest that continues to accrue is $10,756.62. We kindly request that you remit this payment promptly to avoid further escalation of this situation.

However, to facilitate a resolution, we are open to discussing potential options to settle this outstanding debt. If you wish to avoid legal action and would prefer to resolve this matter swiftly, we are willing to consider the following settlement option(s) coupled with a settlement agreement:

1. A one-time lump sum payment of $9,100.00;
2. Monthly payment plan over 3 (three) months, with payments of $3,500.00; or
3. Monthly payment plan over 6 (six) months, with payments of $1,800.00.

We believe that finding a mutually agreeable solution is in the best interest of all parties involved. Therefore, we urge you to contact our billing department immediately to discuss these.

Please note that if we do not hear from you by October 27, 2023, we will be left with no choice but to file the attached warrant in debt in the General District Court for Fairfax County.

We sincerely hope to avoid any further escalation and look forward to resolving this matter amicably. Thank you for your prompt attention to this letter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mahlon J. Mowrer", written over a horizontal line.

Mahlon J. Mowrer, Esq.
